RE: ACCOUNT # 2883600762

To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to again advise you of your legal and banking regulation obligations. Recently, the IRS has placed a levy on a protected account I have at TCF [see attached]. This account - #2883600762 - is a protected, privileged client IOLTA trust account. As you are aware, this account is not subject to garnishment or levy. TCF has, in the past (as recently as last year) accurately identified to the IRS that this IOLTA account is not subject to Summons, levy or garnishment. We are again advising TCF to continue with this accurate, legal and banking regulation position as to this IOLTA account. Thank you; we trust no violation of the law or banking regulations will be allowed. Please contact me if any questions.

Sincerely,

RE: ACCOUNT # 2883600762

Dear Ms. DeLuna:

The purpose of this letter is to again advise you of your legal and banking regulation obligations. Recently, the IRS has placed a levy on a protected account I have at TCF. This account - #2883600762 - is a protected, privileged client IOLTA trust account. As you are aware, this account is not subject to garnishment, levy or production of information, TCF has, in the past (as recently as last year) accurately identified to the IRS that this IOLTA account is not subject to Summons, levy or garnishment. We are again advising TCF to continue with this accurate, legal and banking regulation position as to this IOLTA account. Thank you; we trust no violation of the law or banking regulations will be allowed. Please contact me if any questions.

Sincerely,
